

How to use a DART Ticket Vending Machine (TVM)

Machines accept cash and credit cards and dispense single-ride tickets, Day Passes, 7 Day Passes and 31 Day Passes.

Hold on to your ticket or pass and be prepared to show them to a DART Fare Enforcement Officer, DART Police Officer or other uniformed DART or TRE personnel.

How to use a TVM

To purchase tickets from a DART TVM, follow the steps below. Single-ride tickets* and Day Passes are valid only on the date of purchase.

- Select ticket type: Single-ride*, Day, 7 Day or 31 Day
- Select fare type: Local, System, Regional or Reduced#
- Enter your money. This type of TVM will accept coins, $1, $5, $10, and $20 bills and credit cards (American Express, Discover, MasterCard and Visa).
- Collect your ticket and change.

* A single-ride ticket purchased from a TVM is valid for rail only.

No 7 Day or 31 Day Passes available for Reduced fare type.

Multiple types of tickets may also be purchased in a single transaction on this machine.

Note: Credit cards may be used to purchase DART fares at a rail station.

In addition to single-ride and day passes, 7 Day and 31 Day Passes may also be purchased at these machines. Both the 7 Day and 31 Day Passes are valid from the date purchased at the TVM. The beginning and ending valid dates will be printed on the pass. The option to receive a receipt will be available for credit card transactions.

DART Fares

DART offers three basic, one-way fares -- $1.75 for Local bus and DART Rail service, $3.50 for System service (valid for Local service plus express bus service (all route numbers in the 200s) between downtown Dallas and free park & ride facilities in Addison, Garland, Glenn Heights, Irving, Plano, and Rowlett; Trinity Railway Express (TRE) trains between Union Station and CentrePort/DFW Airport Station; DART On-Call; and FLEX service) and $5.00 for Regional service (valid for Local and System service plus all TRE trains and The T buses in Fort Worth and DCTA buses and trains in Denton County.)

For those passengers using DART round trip or making transfers to a second bus or rail route, a Day Pass -- $4.00 for Local, $7.00 for System and $10.00 for Regional -- is recommended. Day Passes are good for unlimited rides (including your return trip) until 3 a.m. Single-ride tickets and Day Passes are valid only on the date of purchase.

Reduced fares are available for seniors age 65 or older with DART photo ID or Medicare Card, non-paratransit certified persons with disabilities with valid DART photo ID or Medicare card, high school students with DART photo ID or current high school photo ID from a high school within the DART service area (time restriction may apply; see individual pass or ticket for details), or students ages 5 - 14, no photo ID required. A reduced one-way fare is $.85 and a Day Pass is $2.00.

See more information regarding all DART fares on the DART Fares page at <http://www.dart.org/fares>